Learning About the Lawsuit

What is this lawsuit about?

In 2025, a putative class action lawsuit was filed against Aramark. The lawsuit was brought on behalf of individuals who bought food, beverages, or other items from Aramark at Capital One Arena and paid a 3% “venue fee” between October 1, 2024 and December 31, 2025. The lawsuit claims that Aramark charged this 3% “venue fee” on food and beverage purchases at Capital One Arena, allegedly without disclosing the fee, in compliance with the District of Columbia Consumer Protection Procedures Act. Aramark denies any wrongdoing, fault, or liability in the action.

Where can I learn more?

You can get a complete copy of the proposed settlement and other key documents in this lawsuit at:

www.VenueFeeSettlement.com

Why is there a settlement in this lawsuit?

In 2026, the parties agreed to settle, which means they have reached an agreement to resolve the lawsuit. Both sides want to avoid the risk and expense of further litigation.

The settlement is on behalf of the class members who bought food, beverages, or other items from Aramark at Capital One Arena and paid a 3% “venue fee” between October 1, 2024 and December 31, 2025. The Court has not decided this case in favor of either side.

What is a class action settlement?

A class action settlement is an agreement between the parties to resolve and end the case.

What happens next in this lawsuit?

The Court will hold a hearing to decide whether to approve the settlement. The hearing will be held at:

Where: Courtroom 130, Superior Court of the District of Columbia, 500 Indiana Avenue NW, Washington, D.C. 20001.

When: 10:00 AM ET on January 15, 2027.

The Court has directed the parties to send you this notice about the proposed settlement. Because the settlement of a class action decides the rights of all members of the proposed class, the Court must give final approval to the settlement before it can take effect. Payments will only be made if the Court approves the settlement.

You don’t have to attend, but you may at your own expense. You may also ask the Court for permission to speak and express your opinion about the settlement. If the Court does not approve the settlement or the parties decide to terminate the settlement, it will be void and the lawsuit will continue. The date of the hearing may change without further notice to members of the class. To learn more and confirm the hearing date, go to www.VenueFeeSettlement.com.

Learning About the Settlement

What does the settlement provide?

The settlement pays money to class members who bought food, beverages, or other items from Aramark at Capital One Arena and paid a 3% “venue fee” between October 1, 2024 and December 31, 2025.

Aramark has agreed to pay $4,500,000 into a non-reversionary settlement fund. This money will be divided among the class members and will also be used to pay for costs and fees approved by the Court, including the cost of administering this settlement (expected to be approximately $74,985). Each class member who submits a valid claim will receive a pro rata share of the Net Settlement Fund — the money remaining after Court-approved administrative costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, and any service award are deducted. Members of the settlement class will “release” their claims as part of the settlement, which means they cannot sue Aramark or other parties referred to in the settlement agreement for the same issues in this lawsuit. The full terms of the release can be found in the settlement agreement.

If there is money left over after the claims process is completed, it will be donated to a cy pres recipient, Public Justice.

How do I know if I am part of this settlement?

The Settlement Class includes all individuals in the United States who made a purchase from Aramark at Capital One Arena and paid a Venue Fee between October 1, 2024 and December 31, 2025. If that describes you, you are part of this settlement.

How much will my payment be?

There is no fixed per-person amount. Each class member who submits a valid claim will receive a pro rata (proportional) share of the Net Settlement Fund, based on the total number of valid claims. The Net Settlement Fund is the $4,500,000 settlement fund minus Court-approved administrative costs, attorneys’ fees and expenses, and any service award. The more valid claims that are submitted, the smaller each individual payment will be. Payments will be made by Venmo, PayPal, direct deposit, Zelle, or paper check.

Deciding What to Do

How do I weigh my options?

You have four options. You can stay in the settlement and submit a claim, you can opt out of the settlement, you can object to the settlement, or you can do nothing. This chart shows the effects of each option:

	Submit a Claim	Opt out	Object	Do Nothing
Can I receive settlement money if I . . .	YES	NO	YES	NO
Am I bound by the terms of this lawsuit if I . . .	YES	NO	YES	YES
Can I pursue my own case if I . . .	NO	YES	NO	NO
Will the class lawyers represent me if I . . .	YES	NO	NO	YES

What is the best path for me?

You can object to the settlement AND submit a claim form to receive payment.*

Submitting a Claim

How do I get a payment if I am a class member?

If you wish to receive money, you must submit a completed claim form to the Settlement Administrator online or download a claim form at www.VenueFeeSettlement.com and mail to the Settlement Administrator (address below).

Do I have a lawyer in this lawsuit?

In a class action, the court appoints class representatives and lawyers to work on the case and represent the interests of all the class members. For this settlement, the Court has appointed the following individuals and lawyers.

Your lawyers: Katherine Aizpuru and Peter Silva, Tycko & Zavareei LLP; and Wes Griffith and David McGee, Almeida Law Group LLC. These are the lawyers who negotiated this settlement on your behalf.

If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, you may hire one at your own expense.

Do I have to pay the lawyers in this lawsuit?

Lawyers' fees and costs will be paid from the Settlement Fund. You will not have to pay the lawyers directly.

To date, your lawyers have not been paid any money for their work or the expenses that they have paid for the case. To pay for some of their time and risk in bringing this case without any guarantee of payment, your lawyers will request, as part of the final approval of this Settlement, that the Court approve a payment of up to one-third (33.33%) of the $4,500,000 settlement fund in attorneys' fees plus the reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses.

Lawyers' fees and expenses will only be awarded if approved by the Court as a fair and reasonable amount. You have the right to object to the lawyers' fees even if you think the settlement terms are fair.

Your lawyers will also ask the Court to approve a payment of up to $5,000 to the Class Representative, Alexander Garner, for the time and effort they contributed to the case. If approved by the Court, this will be paid from the Settlement Fund.

Opting Out

What if I don't want to be part of this settlement?

You can opt out. If you do, you will not receive payment and cannot object to the settlement. However, you will not be bound or affected by anything that happens in this lawsuit and may be able to file your own case.

How do I opt out?

To opt out of the settlement, you must send a written request that is postmarked no later than December 4, 2026 to the Settlement Administrator at:

Venue Fee Settlement
Administrator
PO Box 1268
Baton Rouge, LA, 70821
(844) 659-2531

Be sure to include the name of the case (Alexander Garner v. Aramark Management Services LP, No. 2025 CAB 007444), your name, address, telephone number, and signature, and say something that clearly states you want to opt out, such as, "I hereby request that I be excluded from the proposed Settlement Class."

Objecting

What if I disagree with the settlement?

If you disagree with any part of the settlement (including the lawyers' fees) but don't want to opt out, you may object. You must give reasons why you think the Court should not approve it and say whether your objection applies to just you, a part of the class, or the entire class. The Court will consider your views. The Court can only approve or deny the settlement — it cannot change the terms of the settlement. You may, but don't need to, hire your own lawyer to help you.

To object, you must file a written objection with the Clerk of Court that:

- (1) is filed with the Clerk of Court by December 4, 2026;
- (2) includes the case name and number (Alexander Garner v. Aramark Management Services LP, No. 2025 CAB 007444)
- (3) includes your full name, address and telephone number, and email address (if you have one);
- (4) states the reasons for your objection;
- (5) says whether either you or your lawyer intend to appear at the final approval hearing and your lawyer's name;
- (6) your signature.

Mail the letter to:

Venue Fee Settlement Administrator PO Box 1268 Baton Rouge, LA, 70821 (844) 659-2531	Superior Court of the District of Columbia Civil Division 500 Indiana Avenue NW Washington, D.C. 20001

Doing Nothing

What are the consequences of doing nothing?

If you do nothing, you will not get any money, but you will still be bound by the settlement and its release provisions. That means you won't be able to start, continue, or be part of any other lawsuit against Aramark about the issues in this case. A full description of the claims and persons who will be released if this settlement is approved can be found in the settlement agreement.
